Dear Dick:

Since your letter of February 4 I have been in touch with Malone, Quigley and Pegram. Things seem to be shaping up nicley on all sides.

Having just talked with Bill Malone on the phone, I undefstand that we have the "go ahead" as far as Keynote Speaker is concerned. Letters are being written now, and we'll just have to keep our fingers crossed.

For your general infɒrmation I have included copies of my letters to Malone and Quigley.

I will forward you all further pertinent information and would appreciate it if copies of some of your "memos" that pertain to us could be sent me, (Reciprocal Trade).

Sincerely,

John H. Davison, Chairman
The Yale Broadcasting Company
